Deadline Set, Tractor Deal Up to Castro

By RON WILSON

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Cuba's Fidel Castro has until noon Friday to decide whether he'll accept 500 farm-type tractors as full ransom for 1,214 April invasion prisoners. Otherwise, any deal is off.

That was the Tractors-for-Free Committee's answer Monday night to the Cuban prime minister's revised demand for $28-million worth of tractors, if he doesn't get the 500 heavy-duty types he says he had in mind originally.

In a take-it-or-leave-it cable, the committee told Castro it was prepared to ship only agricultural tractors and only 500 of them "for the two-fold humanitarian purpose" of freeing prisoners and helping Cubans win higher living standards.

Castro broached the tractors for prisoners deal in a television speech May 17. With White House approval, Mr. Milton Eisenhower, Eleanor Roosevelt and Walter P. Reuther formed as co-chairmen the Tractors-for-Freedom Committee to raise money for 500 tractors.

Dr. Eisenhower is an educator and a brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Mrs. Roosevelt is the widow of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Reuther is president of the United Auto Workers Union.

Castro told a team of four American technicians the committee sent to negotiate last week that he had in mind heavy-duty bulldozer type tractors when he mentioned 500 in his speech. He said Cuba wanted $20 million for indemnification, in tractors or otherwise.

The committee told him he had changed his original proposal and that his list of prisoners had fewer names than "the total 1,214 indicated by you in your original offer."

"Unless we have received from you clear, positive acceptance of our offer by noon, EST, on Friday, June 23," the cable said, "our committee will consider the purposes for which it was established are not possible of realization because of your failure to comply with terms of your own original proposal."

A committee spokesman said the estimated cost of machines offered by the committee was between $3½ million, roughly nine times below Castro's demand.

"The committee probably would have to deliver more than 4,500 light tractors to meet Castro's $28 million price," the spokesman said.

At least 60,000 letters have poured into Tractors-for-Freedom headquarters here since an appeal for funds was issued. The letters will be returned unopened if the deal is called off.

Group Refuses to Clear JFK's School Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Rules Committee today refused to clear President Kennedy's public school bill for House action until it gets another bill containing parochial school aid.

By a 9-vote tie it decided to keep bottled up the public school bill it had been sitting on for nearly a month and await action by the House Education and Labor Committee on the church school issue.

U. S. Plans Crackdown on Mex Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is planning to close the Mexican border at Laredo and El Paso, Tex., to commuting Mexicans holding American jobs wanted by unemployed U. S. citizens.

The Immigration Service is expected to cancel the daily commuter passes of 12,000 to 14,000 Mexicans working in the two U. S. communities but living in Mexico.

Authority for the move to be made in about two weeks is contained in the immigration laws. They permit the Labor Department to bar such back-and-forth commuting when it endangers job opportunities and work standards of U. S. citizens. Laredo and El Paso have a high unemployment rate.

Officials said privately that similar moves may be made later at other Mexican border points.

More than 50,000 Mexicans are estimated to commute daily to jobs at Laredo and El Paso. Officials said they work at wages considerably lower than those paid U. S. citizens.

Chilly Rain Soaks Many Parts of U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A wide area of the nation received a chilly soaking with heavy rains on this last day of spring, but the downpours in Texas were easing up a bit.

Although summer officially starts Wednesday at 11:30 a. m. EST, a cold front still lingered today and stretched from northern New York State southwest through northern Indiana to the Oklahoma Panhandle and north-west across east central Colorado and central Wyoming.

The Weather Bureau said torrential rains would end during the day in extreme eastern Texas and in Louisiana. Severe thunderstorms doused the Texas Panhandle and extreme southeastern New Mexico.

Thunderstorms dropped 1.08 inches of rain on Chicago in little more than an hour and the temperature skidded from 84 to 67. In six hours 1.10 inches fell at Quincy, Ill., 90 at Willow Run Airport in Detroit; 4.05 at Lafayette, La., and 1.58 at the naval air station in New Orleans. Mobile, Ala., measured 1.25 inches in six hours.

Readings in the 40s and 50s were common in the upper Great Lakes, upper Mississippi Valley, the eastern Dakotas, Nebraska and along the Pacific Coast. The 80s prevailed in southern Florida and the central and southern plateau regions.

Needles, Calif., reported 107 while Pellston, Mich., recorded a chilly 39.

He had been hospitalized since he was hurt. The funeral was set for today at Dermott.

Panic Selling in Integrated Housing Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Panic selling by white persons in an integrated section of the Lakeview community near Hempstead, N. Y., has led to a campaign by Negro residents to keep the area from becoming predominantly Negro.

One of the first Negroes to move into the area, Lincoln Lynch, said the campaign was designed to stop panic selling and to alert Negroes that if they continue to buy in the neighborhood they run the risk of creating a segregated situation.

Lynch said Negroes are being urged not to buy homes in the section so the community can be stabilized at its present ratio of about eight white residents to each Negro.

He said about 40 white families in the community of 150 to 200 residents have offered their homes for sale because of the increase in Negro population. The homes cost from $17,000 to $25,000.

... N. Y., about 300 white persons cat-calling and throwing rocks greeted Negro anti-segregation demonstrators at a private, segregated park.

Four or five white persons were arrested after the incident at Fontaine Ferry Park. Nearly 30 Negroes were arrested at the amusement park earlier Monday when they blocked an entrance during a demonstration, police said.

In other racial developments: The Interstate Commerce Commission announced plans for considering Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's request for a ban on racial segregation in interstate bus facilities. The ICC invited written comments to be submitted on Kennedy's proposal by July 20, with oral arguments Aug. 15.

Kennedy was criticized Monday by Alabama's Atty. Gen. MacDonald Gallion who said the federal official should "take his feet off the desk and put them on the ground."

Gallion denied a statement by Kennedy before a U. S. Senate committee that he had talked with Gallion and Alabama Gov. John Patterson about protection for the "Freedom Riders."

"Never before or since the beginning of the freedom rides has Bobby Kennedy or any of his assistants called me concerning this subject and I have never talked with this individual at any time," Gallion said.

The U. S. Supreme Court rejected three more appeals seeking to block public school integration in New Orleans. The high tribunal summarily affirmed a decision by a special three-judge federal panel in New Orleans that ruled unconstitutional the creation of a new school board by the Louisiana Legislature last year.

The Supreme Court also refused to order the setting up of a three-judge federal tribunal to hear a protest against Florida's new pupil assignment law by parents of 14 Negro children in Duval County (Jacksonville), Fla. The county school board defended the law as a constitutional and orderly plan for public school desegregation.

Nine more convicted Freedom Riders were transferred from the county jail at Jackson, Miss., to the State Penitentiary and five others posted bond to gain their freedom from the prison farm.

At Chapel Hill, N. C., a white Duke University student was arrested on trespass charges after refusing to leave the Negro section of a bus station grill. Police said the student, Edward Orton Jr., told them he feels segregation is morally wrong.

Italy Relaxes Ban on U. S. Poultry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said today he has been advised by the State Department that Italy is relaxing its ban on imports of U. S. poultry to the extent of agreeing to accept $200,000 worth of it.

Fulbright said he hoped this would be the first step in a move by Italy to take large quantities of U. S. poultry.

The Italian move, he said, is similar to a concession recently made by Germany in agreeing to remove restrictions on U. S. poultry. As a result, he said, Germany now is importing large quantities. Fulbright said he hopes that France also will lift its embargo.

Conference of Princes Interrupted

By ANDREW BOROWJEC

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—The three Laotian princes interrupted their conference today because one of them was ill, but their chief aides met in an effort to iron out some of the differences between the warring factions.

A spokesman said Prince Souvanna Phouma was suffering from a "slight indisposition" but was expected to be recovered by Wednesday.

The working committee was made up of Quinlin Pholsena, representing Souvanna Phouma; Gen. Phoumi Nosavan from the pro-Western royal government in Vientiane and Phoumi Vongvichit of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao Rebels.

Pro-Western Laotians expressed doubt that the conference of rival princes would be able to agree on a coalition government for their strife-torn Asian kingdom.

"The disagreement is very deep," said a spokesman of the Vientiane group. "I don't have much hope of success. If the talks break down, war will start again in Laos."

Two Groups Want the Bond Deal

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—The board of the Jonesboro Chamber of Commerce and the membership of the Junior Chamber of Commerce voted Monday night to endorse Gov. Orval E. Faubus' $60 million bond issue proposal. The two organizations met separately.

Dillon Sees 1962 as a Good Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon today predicted the nation's economy will grow by a whopping 8 per cent next year and put the federal budget back into the black. In a talk prepared for the National Press Club, Dillon said "we should keep this long-range prospect of prosperity clearly in mind" when accessing the budget deficits currently being recorded.

"It is probable that by this time next year our economy will be rolling in high gear," Dillon said. "We may well be in the midst of an economic boom."

Dillon said the nation's total output of goods and services—the gross national product—will approach $515 billion this year compared with $503 billion in 1960. Noting this would mean an economic growth rate of 2 per cent, he added that 1962 "gives promise of being a year of accelerating growth."

Looking ahead, he said: "From something like $540 billion in the first quarter, we can reasonably hope for an increase to about $570 billion by year end. This would give 1962 an annual level of some $555 billion, an increase of nearly 6 per cent over 1961."

Saying that chances for such a performance are good, Dillon asserted that this would mean enough federal revenues "to meet all of our national needs, with something left over."

Dillon said revenues in the 1963 fiscal year, which begins July 1, 1962, should approximate $60 billion.

For fiscal 1962, which begins next month, the Treasury looks for revenues of $61.4 billion and a deficit of $3.7 billion.

For the current fiscal year, ending June 30, the Treasury now is forecasting a deficit of about $3 billion.

Cuban Syrup Unloads at New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A cargo of Cuban blackstrap molasses was being unloaded here today from a Norwegian tanker. The ship—the SS Stolt Avance—arrived here last Friday from Neuquien, Cuba. It carried 2,016, 424 barrels of molasses.

The New Orleans Times-Picayune quoted an unidentified customs official as saying there are no import restrictions on blackstrap molasses.

The cargo is being unloaded at the Publicker Chemical Corp. docks at Westwego, across the Mississippi River from New Orleans. The molasses will be used to make cattle feed.

The office of the New Orleans Collector of Customs said the cargo was valued at $201,842.40.

It could not be determined if the molasses was part of a $2 million purchase which President Kennedy earlier had said he hoped would not be consummated.

The President told his Feb. 5 press conference that the deal was not in the best interest of this country.

No officials of the Publicker concern were available for comment.

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The new commander of cadets at the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., is from Pine Bluff. He is Brig. Gen. William T. Seawell, 43, a 1941 graduate of West Point, who takes over this week.

Seawell has been assigned to the Office of the Air Force Secretary since 1958. He served in Europe in World War II and later commanded a Strategic Air Force group based in England. His wife the former Judith Alexander, also is a native of Pine Bluff. They have two children, Brooke, 13, and Ane, 8.

Bond Issue Is Called People vs. Politicians

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus' $60 million bond issue proposal was viewed today as a threat to the state's industrial program.

Joshua K. Shepherd, chairman of the Committee for Public Schools took this view in a press release because, he said, the bond proposal is tied to a controversial extension of the use tax.

"Growing concern is reported among industry-seeking leaders in Arkansas over pledging the use tax to support the $60 million bond issue," Shepherd said. "The fear is that if the use tax is irrevocably fastened on the state, it may deter relocation of industry here."

The 1961 Legislature removed certain exemptions in the use tax, which is a sales tax on items purchased outside the state. It then pledged any additional revenue from the tax to refund overruns from the use tax to retirement of proposed bonds. The extended use tax could not be repealed while the bonds are outstanding.

Several groups, including the Arkansas Chamber of Commerce, worked against the use tax extension and presumably would try to effect its repeal in 1963 if the bond proposal fails.

Shepherd issued his latest statement after Faubus promised voters Monday night that there will be no tax increases or funds taken from state agencies to pay off the bonds.

Faubus made the promise in a speech over a statewide television and radio network Monday night as the heated bond campaign went into its final week. He special election on the proposed $60 million deal is next Tuesday.

Faubus and Dr. David W. Mullins, president of the University of Arkansas, held the pro-bond spotlight Monday. Mullins spoke in Little Rock and West Memphis, saying the future development of higher education in Arkansas is at stake in the election.

Five opponents of the bonds got into the campaign act Monday. Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, told audiences in Forrest City and McGehee that the bond deal is a grab for political power and "to exorbitant for the poor people of Arkansas."

Eugene Warren, Little Rock attorney, said in a speech at Heber Springs that "The people of Arkansas are caught in a crossfire between special interests who are endorsing each other's participation in the bond issue." He said the various agencies are trading votes for the promise of money. Rev. Erwin L. McDonald, editor of the Arkansas Baptist News magazine, said in an editorial that the bond issue is the "zanziest, most diabolical con ever to be offered to the citizenry of Arkansas."

Joshua K. Shepherd, chairman of the Arkansas Committee for the Public Schools, an antibond group, accused Faubus of being unfortunates to sell the people a bill of goods. He appealed for money to finance the final week of the antibond campaign.

Rep. Gayle Windsor of Pulaski County charged Faubus to use surplus state funds to get State Hospital patients "off the floor" instead of trying to drop the state into debt.

Faubus appealed from a personal standpoint, and from the standpoint of his administration: "Do you think that after 6 1/2 years in office I would be so stupid as to countenance for one moment any kind of deal that would be smirch my honor and the reputation of this administration for honesty and efficiency?" he asked.

Faubus asked his critics, especially Rozzell and Shepherd, and charged that they had turned the bond campaign into one full of distortions, slurs and wild charges.

The governor said opponents object to the bond program because no interest rate has been set. "If it had been, the state could not have bargained for the best interest rate," he said. "It will be set by competitive bidding."

He challenged Rozzell: "If the Continued on Page Two

Leona had felt guilty about these early doubts. She knew that Aunt Maggie and the others meant well and to a certain extent they had been right in making a close examination of Paul. Faubus denied any tie in between the bonds and horse racing at Hot Springs. But Dr. McDonald said the bond proposal was a "sellout to the Oaklawn Jockey Club." It pledges 12 extra days of racing revenues to pay off the bonds.

"If you think politics has a strangle hold on Arkansas and her people now," the minister said, "just wait till you see what it will be like if the bonds are voted."

Faubus said funds from the race track go into the general revenue fund except for the added 12 days. He added that public school funds come out of the general revenue fund.

The governor said his opponents have "attempted to create a bogey man to frighten the public with things which do not exist—trying to insinuate corruption and would go after something better. Ambition is no crime.

Now Leona's father would see to it that Paul had something suitable to work at. Paul was eager and ambitious and he'd be worth every cent her father paid him. Paul finally won over Aunt Maggie, Leona's father and all the other relatives.

"He has a way about him," said the old man. "I'll make a good salesman out of him."

"I suppose if you're bound to marry him, we can't stop you," said Aunt Maggie. "But remember, you have a great deal of money and you'd better be sure this man wants you, not what you have or will get."

"Tosh, Aunt Maggie," said Leona.

"But I'm like your father. He is a nice young man—to all appearances." From Aunt Maggie, that was an accolade.

Now Leona and Paul were alone together in the bridal suite, looking out over the sea. Paul stood there handsome, calm and unruffled. Not in the least nervous, as Leona was. Paul never wore his emotions on his countenance.

As Leona smiled, he smiled back, a friendly smile, but somewhat restrained. But it was quite in keeping with Paul's cool, reserved personality.

"We're alone, Paul," she whispered.

Paul clasped her to him. He kissed her tenderly. Leona would have preferred a little less tenderness and a little more warmth, but Paul would grow into that sort of thing. He couldn't cast aside his polished restraint like a cape. Paul would never act like a savage cave man.

"Isn't it wonderful?" Leona said. "We're married at last. We belong to each other. We'll be together forever."

She felt one of his arms untwine and she looked up as he lifted his hand.

What she saw froze the smile on her lips. Leona pulled back, breaking loose from his one-armed embrace.

Paul was yawning.

THE END

JFK Decides to Give His Back a Rest

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today decided not to attend a women's press dinner to-night to avoid any additional strain in his ailing back.

The White House, announcing the change in plans, reported Kennedy continues to improve, however.

The chief executive, still using his crutches, walked with greater apparent ease than newsmen had observed in a week when he got out of his helicopter on returning from Middleburg, Va., to the dishonesty."

Faubus attacked state Sen. Roy Milum's proposed pay-as-you-go construction plan as "rather foolish and wholly inadequate."

He said under such a plan the current surplus of $10 million would not meet the needs of the State Hospital and several agencies would be left out.

He charged opponents with exaggerating the amount of the surplus fund. He said there is a $14.5 million surplus, but $4.5 million belongs to various agencies and cannot be used.

Faubus said "the same old crowd" was opposing the bond plan "because it was proposed by me."

At West Memphis, Dr. Mullins emphasized that the bond program was "Not the governor's program. We (the college president's) devised it and the governor supported it," Mullins said.

He said the election will hold the key to whether or not the University of Arkansas will be a first rate land grant institution.

"The response we give to this program at the polls next week," Mullins added, "will determine in no small manner the shape of future development in Arkansas."

While the speech making was going on, the board of directors of the Yell County Farm Bureau met in Ola and voted unanimously for a resolution opposing the bonds.

"The opinions expressed by the state president of the Farm Bureau do not coincide with those of the Yell County board," the resolution said.

Faubus denied any secret deal for the sale of the bonds and for a fiscal agent's fee. He said it was not true that a "superboard" would be created to spend the money and that he would control it.

Rozzell charged that "The only reason for extending the bond program over a four period is to provide machinery for political manipulations."

Shepherd issued a statement after Faubus' speech criticizing Faubus for not explaining his "callous neglect of the suffering sick folk in the State Hospital, whose more serious dangers and deficiencies could and should be corrected with the abundant surplus in the state treasury."

"The big bond deal," Shepherd said, "is now definitely one of politicians against the people."

White House this morning.

The President and Mrs. Kennedy had been scheduled to attend the annual dinner of the Women's National Press Club at a Washington hotel tonight.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said Mrs. Kennedy would join in the festivities House physician, and to the President but that the chief executive would skip the affair.

"The feeling is that with the progress he is making, no added strain should be placed on his back at this time," Salinger said. He attributed this feeling both to

Dr. Janet Travell, the White House physician.

The doctor's prognosis for recovery, Salinger added, is such that Kennedy "does not want to interfere with that recovery by putting any added strain on his back."

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

Galaxie styling is inspiring more admiration (and imitation) than any other car on the road!

This is the look that started with Thunderbird—sired the Galaxie—and quickly became the styling success of the Sixties.

Many cars have tried to copy it. No car has succeeded. Incomparably beautiful, the 1961 Galaxie maintains its distinction—as originals always do.

Styling is only part of Galaxie's distinction: this is the car that's beautifully built to take care of itself. The '61 Ford goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications . . . 4,000 miles between oil changes. Brakes adjust automatically. The muffler is built to last three times as long as ordinary ones. The body is specially treated to resist rust and corrosion. The finish never needs waxing.

Wouldn't it make sense to STOP spending money on an old car that can never do for you what a new Ford can do?

SWAP right now while your Ford Dealer's sales are booming—and the swapping is easier than it's ever been before.

SAVE with the Ford that makes saving fun!

forecast for ENERGY

Soaring production will double demand for industrial energy by 1980

How rapidly is America's industrial output expanding? Here are some clues: From 1950 to 1959, output of petrochemicals increased 216%; plastics, 173%; aluminum, 140%. Total output of business and industrial equipment has virtually doubled. Production and processing of all these requires heat and heat is energy. This is just part of the reason why America's consumption of energy will double by 1980.

Where will it come from? Much will come from present energy sources, some from new ones. Wherever produced, a large share of energy in its most efficient and usable forms will be transported via pipelines. Texas Eastern's natural gas pipelines, which stretch from the Mexican border to the Atlantic Seaboard, have capacity to fuel thousands of factories and heat millions of homes. Our Little Big Inch pipeline system, largest of its kind, delivers liquid petroleum products from Gulf Coast refineries to Midwest markets. Looking to the future, Texas Eastern is growing and diversifying today to meet tomorrow's energy needs.

Can This Be Love

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen: I had an understanding sister to whom I always went with my problems. She passed away last year. Without her I am completely lost. So I turn to you.

I have been going with a boy for two years. Both our parents approved. Until a tour of duty in the Navy took him to Japan, we couldn't have been happier. Then everything changed.

His letters, though full of love, were infrequent. He asked me to forget him because he would be gone too long and loved me too much to want me staying at home for his sake. In the next letter he would ask me to take him back. I always did.

Then he begged me to date other boys. I tried only to prove that no one could take his place in my heart. Up to his last letter back in January he continued to insist that he still loved me. I've written many letters since—all remain unanswered. I can't believe it's over. We loved each other so much. I live day by day in the hope that tomorrow I will get the long-lost letter. I see no one, go no place.

Should I take my parents' advice and wait for him? He will be home next January. They say he only acts this way because he is so far from home. Or should I listen to my friends and try to forget him? We are both 21 and mature in our thinking. Please help me. —D. S. M.

Dear D. S. M.: Since both sets of parents approved, why not find out what's what from his folks? Hard though it will be, I strongly urge you to go on with your own life. If he comes back in the mood to pick up where he left off and if you still care, well and good. If he doesn't you've built a life independent of him. Remember this: Moping only lessens your chances of ever rekindling his love. The more self-sufficient you are, the more attractive you will be to him.

Dear Helen: Both my parents are dead. I have lived with the same folks since I was six. They ter, Martha Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Kyler, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin and children of Tullahoma, Tenn., are visiting the L. S. Burns family.

Mr. and Mrs. Timman Caudle and children of Dallas, Texas, were here this week-end to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Q. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Caudle. The visitors in the Smith home were joined Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Goodman and children of Bodeau.

Mrs. Jerry Williamson and children returned to their home in Fort Worth, Texas, Sunday after a three-weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hartsfield and Edward.

Mrs. Jim Brewer of Helena has been visiting her mother, Mrs. L. F. Higginson, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Sutton returned Becky and Richard Sutton to their home in Little Rock after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Newt Pentecost and Mr. and Mrs. Sutton.

Wednesday

Every Wednesday night is park night at City Park. All kinds of recreational activities along with baseball, boxing, pony league baseball, and all kinds of latest record for your entertainment.
Everyone come on out and have a good time. Time 7:30 p.
m. Roscoe Smith, Supervisor of Recreation.

Facts About Recreation

Ours is the age of leisure, and from all evidence, it has not reached its peak. Travel increases each year. Sales of sporting goods reach mammoth proportions. New games sweep the market, articles and books emphasizing the importance of wholesome use of leisure time to mental health abound. Such interest can be measured by sales, yet the form of recreation most used and most enjoyed by the greatest number of people of all ages is so generally accepted that it is almost taken for granted.
Everybody, young and old can meet his friends and neighbors at city park for an informal get-together. You see, social recreation, the activities that go on at such a get together reach deep into our lives, increase good will and understanding, give us a chance to relax, laugh, and enjoy each other. Yet, like the common cold, we tend to take it for granted, to accept it without critical analysis, to assume that it will "come out all right."

Every civic, rural group, school,
P. T. A. group-every type of organization in which we Americans enjoy being a part regularly set aside certain periods of relaxation from the main work of the organization, yet give those periods very little of the careful planning given other parts of its program.
Those of us in the field of recreation, such as Charles Gough, and many others, know that good social recreation does not just happen. It takes skill and know-how; it takes practice. Reading a game is very different from leading a game. Knowing what activities to select, how to get the interest of the group, how to hold that interest, when to change, how to plan, how to evaluate-all take skill, practice, and ability.
For that reason, we around city park adhere to the principles of child-growth and development, adolescent psychology, and pray to God for guidance. Roscoe Smith, Supervisor of Recreation.

Homers Play Part as KC Downs Yanks

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas City made Hank Bauer's debut as manager a success with a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees Monday night, coming from behind on consecutive ninth-inning home runs by Norm Siebern and pinchhitter Wes Covington.

The only other game scheduled in the American League, Cleveland at Chicago, was rained out. That left runner-up Cleveland a half-game behind Detroit as the third place Yankees dropped 1½ games behind the Tigers.

No games were scheduled in the National League, where Cincinnati has won five in a row for a 1½ game lead—the biggest bulge any NL leader has had in three weeks.

Bauer, 38, taking over after Joe Gordon was fired in a surprise move by A's owner Charles F. Kille, was backed by a couple of ex-Yanks and picked the right man at the right time for Kansas City's third victory in nine games with New York.

Siebern, like Bauer a one-time Yankee outfielder, collected half of the A's six hits. He drove in their first run with a fourth-inning single, then singled and scored their second run in the seventh on a triple by ex-Yank Deron Johnson before finally chasing starter Roland Sheldon with his ninth home run in the ninth.

The homer squared it 3-all, and Yankee Manager Ralph Houk brought in relief ace Luis Arroyo, a left-hander. Bauer met the challenge by picking Covington, a left-handed hitter, and Wes walloped his fifth homer. It was little Luis' third defeat, second by the A's.

Jim Archer, a stubby southpaw won his third in a row with a seven-hitter. He gave up a pair of solo homers, Bill Skowron's 14th in the fourth, and Roger Maris' 25th, in the ninth, while beating New York a second time. Archer, now 5-1, is the only lefty to pitch

Tokyo Games Scheduled for Oct. 9

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — The International Olympic Committee today approved the dates for the 1964 summer Olympic Games in Tokyo—starting Oct. 9 or Oct. 10 and ending Oct. 25.

The winter games will be held in Innsbruck, Austria, from Jan. 29 to Feb. 9.

The reason for uncertainty on the exact starting date of the Tokyo Olympic is that the summer games, for the first time, will have a full day of rest following opening day ceremonies.

Originally the Japanese proposed that the games open Oct. 11. Monday the IOC ruled there should be a day of rest.

IOC Chancellor Otto Mayer said the Tokyo opening ceremony would be Oct. 9 or 10. The next day would be a day of rest. The actual competitions will start on the third day—either Oct. 11 or 12.

There will be no rest period after the winter Olympics opening day.

Mayer said the program of the winter Olympics had been approved without too much discussion but that many questions remained to be settled about the Tokyo games.

He said the winter Olympics program would be the same as the 1960 program at Squad Valley, Calif., plus competitions in bobsleds and luges (a one-man toboggan).

The committee of five general managers plans to get together again some time this week in order to adopt a blueprint in time to present it to league presidents at a meeting of the National League in Chicago Monday.

Attending the meeting were Buzz Bavasi of Los Angeles, Bing Devine of St. Louis, John McAlle of Milwaukee, Chub Feeney of San Francisco and John Quinn of Philadelphia.

Also at the meeting was league President Warren Giles, who said there would be no announcements.

Lookouts to Share the Loop Lead

By VERNON BUTLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chattanooga, so proud all season of its classy collection of Southern Association rookies, had to share the league lead as well as rookie honors today with the Birmingham Barons.

Four Birmingham recruits played major roles Monday night in saddling the young Lookouts with a three-game losing streak for the first time in 1961. The Barons, led by Johnny Seale, John Sullivan, Purn Goldy and Narm Manning, routed Chattanooga 10-2 and climbed into a tie for first place with the Lookouts.

The aggressive Macon Peaches, blanked for eight innings by Nashville's Oscar Chinique, rallied in the ninth for a 3-2 victory. Atlanta, Shreveport, Little Rock and Mobile were rained out. It was Shreveport's fifth straight day of washouts.

Seale hurled his ninth victory for Birmingham, and eight-hitter which saw the young left-hander from Colorado blank the Lookouts after the first inning.

Sullivan, Barons catcher, clouted a homer, double and single. Outfielder Goldy, pushing for the league batting lead, powered two triples and drove in three runs. Shortstop Manning sparked defensively and added a single and a double to Birmingham's 14-hit assault on three Chattanooga pitchers. Starter Al Neiger, who beat the Barons last week in Birmingham, absorbed the loss, his fourth against five victories.

Birmingham has won five in a row and eight of its last 10 games in the drive to the top of the standings.

An error by Nashville Manager Spencer Robbins permitted Macon's winning run to score. George Holder's single with the bases loaded drove in two runs and erased a 2-0 Nashville lead in the bottom of the ninth. Holder took too wide a turn at first base and was caught in a rundown, but the winning run crossed the plate as first baseman Robbins dropped the ball when tagged Holder.

Magnolia Tennis Acc Eliminated

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — Bizz Sheshunoff of Magnolia, Ark., was defeated in second round play of the Southeastern Junior Invitational tennis tournament Monday by top-seeded Bob Hardcastle of Atlanta.

Hardcastle took a 6-2, 6-4 decision and advanced to the semifinals.

this spring but our scouts didn't think they were worth what the other clubs did."

Manager Is Against Big Bonuses

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — General Manager John Quinn of the Philadelphia Phillies says major league baseball is committing suicide with payments of huge bonuses to youngsters fresh out of high school. As a solution, he suggests a free agent draft.

Quinn indicated the Phillies might sponsor legislation for such a draft when the major leagues hold their annual meetings late this month.

"The whole situation has gotten out of hand," Quinn said Monday. "We thought we had solved the problem with the rule that made any first-year player not brought up to the big league club eligible for the draft after his first season. But that obviously hasn't had any appreciable effect."

"The quicker we get around to adopting a draft such as pro football uses, the better it will be for baseball."

Under the draft system, names of all the outstanding major league prospects graduating from high school would be placed into a hopper and clubs would take turns selecting with the last place club in each league getting first pick. The other clubs would follow in reverse order according to their finish the season before.

The Phillies, who in past years have signed several bonus players, haven't done much this year in handing out huge sums of money.

Asked if this meant an economic move, Quinn said it didn't and explained: "We have been interested in most of the players that have been signed for big money
